

Drink Coffee at Fonte Cafe in Seattle for a Good Cause

Monday December 13, 2010

Not that you need an excuse to drink coffee when you're in Seattle, but here's one anyway -- throughout the month of December, Fonté Coffee Roaster is donating all profits from sales of its new Holiday Blend to the Pike Market Child Care and Preschool. About three-quarters of the students at the school receive tuition assistance, and the school must raise at least $250,000 annually to maintain access to its programs.

Fonté's Holiday Blend is a tasty way to help out. It's a blend of aged sumatra, as well as other coffees from East Africa. Visit Fonté Cafe and Wine Bar at 1321 First Avenue in the Four Seasons Hotel, Seattle, or you could also purchase online.
